

"She's a lovely lady" Storyboard for Clay music video - November 27, 2009

(Opening Guitar Riff)

Jon skipping stones at river with Tomer making sandwich - (Ducks)

(whistling)

Whistling with pucker lips

("you said I'd...")

"be lovin' on the west side. just some ducks"

(ego man/said, "quite crazy")

"But I just met a new girl. she's pullin' my string!

She's even changing where I'm living

(she smiles and nods)

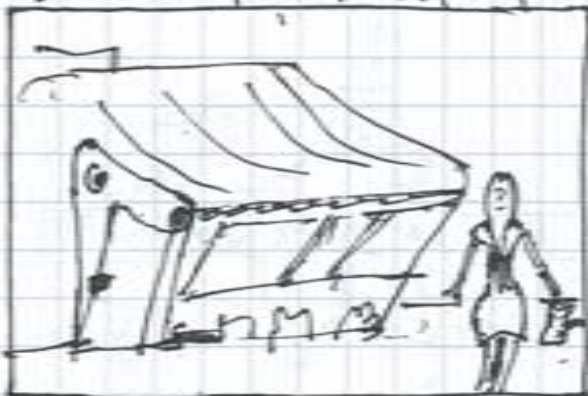

Sunday morning I checked the air

I can see the clouds are fair

She's a lovely lady pretty as you see

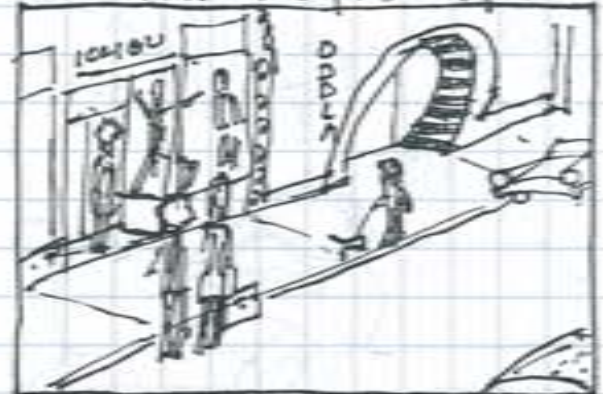

She's a lovely lady just for me

Ugosa: I'll leave to take most and shop.

(watering plants)
(whistling)

(Truman runs to her - walks on wall - kiss
We will make every little step)

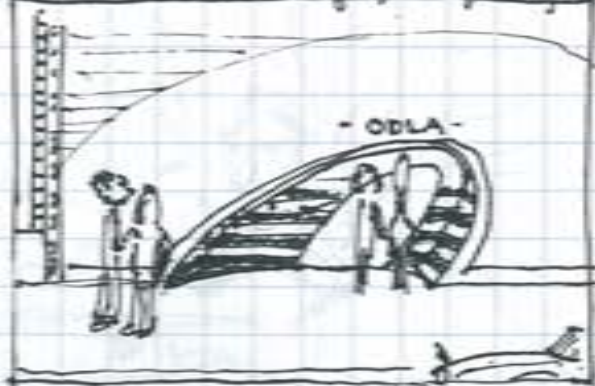

Truman takes drink
I don't mind what I get, as long as it's for me

Sam scratching
back

Overall scene for first two scenes - closeup of whistling - Truman I'd buy two for two if it were the night for (fog fades out/info stopping - needed after radio dr.)

Sunday - morning I checked the air

(opens window with stick)

I can see the clouds are fair

She's a lovely lady pretty as you see

She's a lovely lady just for me

(She Nods yes)

Can't remember what it was like

(Tommy lifts up blanket to gaze at her naked neck - she slips him - leaves red mark) when I was alone ... down and alone

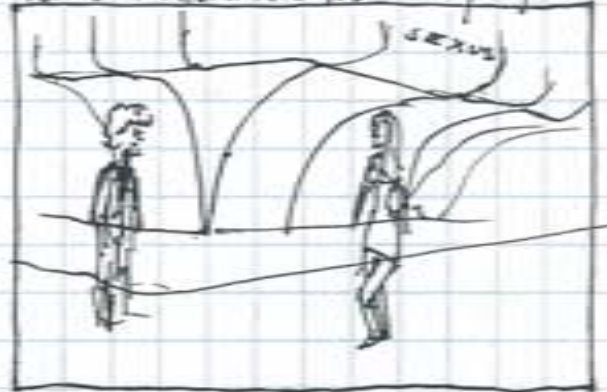

(as he kisses her her legs spread with excitement) but I can remember what it was like when I first met her Sunday morning and this is the way I felt that very day trees turn from brown/green to yellow - plumbe flowers couldn't utter a word to save my life -

Emma in slightly - on her - turns towards camera - flowers have pink blossoms

spins her once, walks away head-in-hand

Tommy meets her walking around the corner - for first time - can't say much

(whistling)

You said I'd be livin' on the west side and now its true...

Solve

beautiful girl

pulled the rug from under me
